

RELEASED IN FULL

TELECON
Dinitz/Kissinger
October 19, 1973
7:40 p. m.

D. I talked to the Prime Minister. She said with open arms.

K. Women shouldn't say that to me.

D. There is a certain age they are safe even from you, Mr. Secretary.

K. I am trying to be prepared for any event. What if they want to go back to October 6 ceasefire at October 6 lines and no linkage on anything?

D. I will have to ask the Prime Minister.

K. The greater flexibility I have the better it will go. Tell it to Scowcroft. He can get it to me.

D. I will get it to Scowcroft by tomorrow morning.

K. And any other combination you can think of. I will open with your position in any event. I don't know if their first point is so attractive to them any more.--The ceasefire at these lines. I have no doubt with all the complaining....I think you and I ran a good operation together.

D. Either we will wind up as worst enemies for best friends.

K. Most people don't realize that both diplomatically and militarily it was done very well. You did a great job.

D. Bon voyage. You have a successful trip.